

Alberta as a Barrister & Solicitor in Alberta and holds memberships in the Canadian Bar Association, the Law Society of Alberta and Beta Gamma Sigma.

Environmental Offences:

The Prosecution Perspective

SUSAN MCRORY

*Chief Prosecutor, Special Prosecutions Branch
Alberta Justice*

Has been Chief Prosecutor with the Special Prosecutions Branch, Alberta Justice since 1993. She is responsible for all environmental prosecutions in Alberta. Ms. McRory has been involved in prosecutions against several large multi-national and Canadian corporations as well as the cities of Edmonton and Calgary.

Oil Sands Water Resources Law & Policy

J. OWEN SAUNDERS

Executive Director

Canadian Institute of Resources Law

Appointed Executive Director of the Institute effective January 1, 1990. His main areas of interest include natural resources policy, international trade law, energy law, trans boundary water law, and environmental and constitutional law.

4:00PM WRAP UP

THIS SEMINAR SHOULD BE OF INTEREST
TO PRIVATE PRACTITIONERS, CORPORATE
COUNSEL AND REGULATORY SPECIALISTS
CONCERNED WITH OIL SANDS
DEVELOPMENT AND OPERATIONS

Registration for Oil Sands: Navigating the
Legal/Regulatory Terrain
Murray Fraser Hall, Rm. 4369
Faculty of Law, University of Calgary
2500 University Dr NW
Calgary AB T2N 1N4

Registration fee: $400.00 (GST included)
Cancellation fee: $50.00

Name: _____

Firm: _____

Address: _____

City _____ Prov. _____ Postal Code _____

Fax: _____

Email: _____

Payment:

- Cheques - payable to:
University of Calgary
- Credit Cards: (Please circle one)
Visa
Master Card

Card number _____ Expiry date _____

Signature: _____

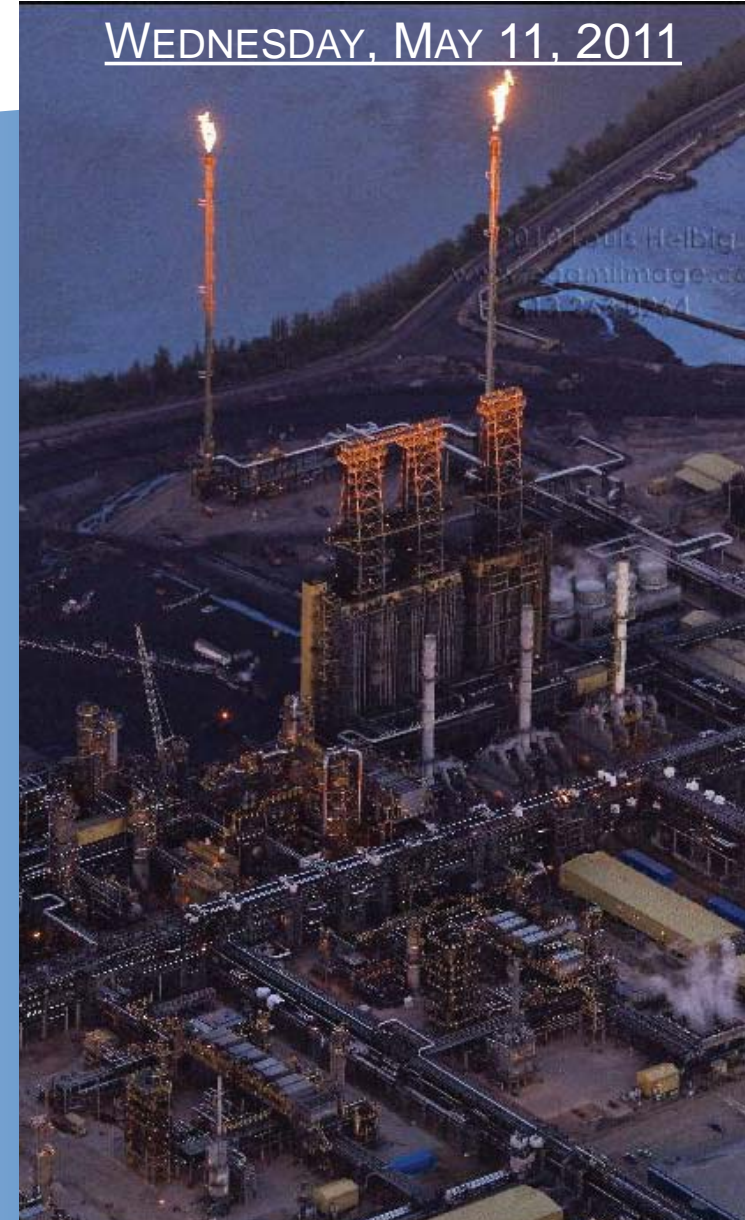

Fax: 403.210.3928

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY
FACULTY OF LAW

OIL SANDS: NAVIGATING THE LEGAL & REGULATORY TERRAIN

WEDNESDAY, MAY 11, 2011

9:00AM INTRODUCTION

ALASTAIR R. LUCAS QC
*Dean, Faculty of Law
University of Calgary*

Before joining the Faculty in 1976 as a founding member of faculty, he was at the Faculty of Law, University of British Columbia from 1968 to 1976. Academic interests are concentrated on regulatory issues related to energy and environmental law, oil and gas law, constitutional law, and judicial review.

SESSION 1: OIL SANDS CARBON MITIGATION RISK

US EPA GHG Emissions Regulations: Potential Canadian Impact

BERNARD J. ROTH
Partner

Fraser Milner Casgrain LLP
Practices in the firm's Energy Regulatory Practice Group in Calgary. His experience in this area has focused on administrative law. He has previously given pipeline transportation lectures at the University of Calgary and the University of Saskatchewan.

JOHN GOETZ
Partner

Fraser Milner Casgrain LLP
Has extensive experience advising clients in the energy sector, including in-house experience at a major oil company. John leads the Climate Change and Emissions Trading Group and brings his energy and cleantech experience and insights to this emerging area of practice.

Carbon Capture and Storage - Property & Regulation

NIGEL BANKES
*Chair of Natural Resources of Law
University of Calgary*

Has been with the Faculty of Law since 1984 and is the current holder of the Chair of Natural Resources Law. He teaches or has taught courses in property law, aboriginal law, natural resources law, energy law, oil and gas law and international environmental law.

The Nuclear Energy Option

ASTRID KALKBRENNER
*PhD Candidate, Faculty of Law
University of Calgary*

Before coming to Canada she was legally educated and articulated in Berlin, Germany. Ms. Kalkbrenner worked as a corporate lawyer in Frankfurt/Main and Berlin. Her areas of research include international energy law with a special interest in nuclear law, environmental and natural resources law.

Is There Unlimited Federal Power to Regulate Greenhouse Gas Emissions?

Alastair R. Lucas, QC
*Dean, Faculty of Law
University of Calgary*

12:30PM LUNCH

First Nations and Metis Constitutional Challenges in the Context of ERCB and Joint Provincial/Federal Proceedings

PATRICIA JOHNSTON, QC
*General Counsel
Energy Resources Conversation Board*
In 1999, Patty joined the Alberta Securities Commission as Director, Legal Services & Policy Development, where she was responsible for overseeing local, multijurisdictional and national securities law related policy development and legislative amendments, contested takeover bids and exemptive relief applications. Patty joined the Energy Resources Conservation Board as general counsel just over 3 years ago. In her role at the ERCB, Patty leads a team of 13 lawyers comprising the law branch, who provide legal advice and hearing support to staff in the various branches and field offices of the ERCB and the Board Members.

2:00PM

SESSION 2: OIL SANDS ENVIRONMENTAL LAW CHALLENGES

The Royal Society Report: Key Legal Issues for Regulatory Approval

MARTIN IGNASIAK
*Partner
Osler Hoskin Harcourt LLP*

Martin is a partner in Osler's Calgary office whose practice focuses on regulatory and environmental law. He has extensive experience in developing and executing strategies for obtaining necessary regulatory approvals for large scale industrial projects, including oil sands facilities, coal mines and electric generation facilities. In his capacity as a regulatory lawyer, Martin regularly advises clients on aboriginal issues.

Legislated Energy Corridors & Regulatory Momentum

ALLAN INGELSON
*Associate Professor, Faculty of Law & Haskayne School of Business
University of Calgary*

His graduate work was in international natural resources and environmental law and policy. In 1991 he was admitted to the Law Society of